SHERI L. BERTO CENTER

The Chicago Bulls broke ground for the Sheri L. Berto Center on October 21, 1991 and less than a year later the finest facility of its kind was up and running. The building itself is as unique and impressive as the individual whose name it bears.

Sheri L. Berto, who had been Bulls Chairman Jerry Reinsdorf's long-time assistant, was a favorite among everyone in the organization. On November 23, 1991, the entire Bulls organization experienced a great loss when Sheri passed away suddenly from undiagnosed internal bleeding while a patient at Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge.

In her position as Mr. Reinsdorf's assistant, Sheri had the opportunity to touch and brighten the lives of countless people from fans to heads of state. Her wonderful sense of humor and ability to bring joy to any situation were immediately missed even more than her considerable professional skills.

During the remainder of the 1991-92 season, the team wore black patches on their jerseys in memory of Sheri. When the new training facility opened in September of 1992, it was named The Sheri L. Berto Center and dedicated to her memory. The building continues to serve as a tribute to the countless contributions Sheri made to the Bulls, their fans and the community, as she is still greatly missed by all who had the pleasure of meeting her.

Bill Cartwright Head Coach

Bill Cartwright is in his second season as head coach of the Chicago Bulls. He was a key contributor to five NBA World Championships as a player or an assistant coach. He spent 16 years at center in the NBA, one of the most difficult and physically demanding positions in professional basketball. On December 28, 2001, the Bulls put his 20 years of NBA experience to work, entering the next phase of their post-championship era by naming Cartwright the 14th head coach in team history.

In his first experience as a head coach at any level, Cartwright immediately earned the players' respect and applied it to the process geared toward the development of a bevy of young and promising talent. Cartwright dedicated himself to the development of a group of young players that included four NBA Lottery picks in their first or second season and a roster that included eight players younger than 25 years old. The veteran NBA hand led the Bulls to a 17-38 (.309) record, the team's first two three-game win streaks in three years and victories in four of their final six games. The Bulls also improved their scoring output, reaching 100+ points on 15 occasions under Cartwright. Following the encouraging start to his coaching career, Cartwright and the Bulls agreed to exercise a three-year option on his contract on March 11, 2002.

Prior to taking the reigns as head coach, Cartwright spent six seasons as an assistant coach with the Bulls following his hiring on September 3, 1996. As an assistant under Phil Jackson (1996-98) and Tim Floyd (1998-2001), Cartwright helped the Bulls to the 1997 and 1998 NBA World Championships. Cartwright instructed the big men on the Bulls roster, spearheading the development of the centers and power forwards. During his tenure, he helped Elton Brand achieve Rookie of the Year honors in 2000 as the young power forward averaged 20.1 ppg and 10.0 rpg. He continued those duties initially this season with rookies Tyson Chandler and Eddy Curry and the Bulls saw rapid improvement by the teenage big men as both increased their scoring and rebounding throughout each month of the campaign.

As a 7-1, 245-pound center, Cartwright played 15 years in the NBA, including six with the Bulls. During his playing career, Cartwright was tutored by some of the game's best coaches, including Red Holzman, Hubie Brown, Doug Collins, Phil Jackson and George Karl. During his tenure with the Bulls, Cartwright earned the nickname "Teach" for his ability to pass along his knowledge of the game and its players to his teammates. An NBA All-Star (1980), he finished with career averages of 13.2 ppg, 6.3 rpg and 1.4 apg shooting .525 from the floor and .771 from the free throw line. In 124 career playoff games, Cartwright averaged 8.9 ppg, 5.4 rpg and 1.3 apg, shooting .482 from the floor and .725 from the free throw line.

NBA COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

The NBA is strongly committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on reading and youth programs. Each year the league, its players and its teams donate millions of dollars and hundreds of hours to charities and community outreach programs. Through its extensive outreach programs, team foundations, and public service announcements, the NBA is deeply involved in addressing a variety of important social issues in its communities.

READ TO ACHIEVE

Read to Achieve is a year-round program designed to help young people develop a life-long love for reading that reaches an estimated 50 million children a year. It is the most extensive educational outreach initiative in the history of professional sports. In addition to a year-round promotional campaign, the effort includes the annual donation of more than 300,000 books through a variety of reading events and book fairs, as well as the creation of locally based Reading and Learning Centers.

With the support of long-time national partners such as RIF and Scholastic Inc., the NBA has created more than 30 Reading and Learning Centers throughout North America in an effort to provide access to reading materials and technology to young people everywhere.

Integral components of the program are national and local All-Star Reading Teams comprised of current and former NBA and WNBA players and other members of the NBA family, who promote reading efforts through in-arena events, Public Service Announcements, and community appearances throughout the year.

COMMUNITY ASSIST AWARD

In recognition of the community outreach and commitment to service of our players, the league has established the Community Assist Award, which honors players whose efforts in the community are truly outstanding. To honor the NBA Player that reflects the passion that the league and its players have for their communities, all 29 NBA teams nominate a player for the Community Assist Award which is presented monthly throughout the year.

NBA AND WNBA SPORTSMANSHIP AWARDS

Awarded annually at the conclusion of each league's regular season, the NBA and WNBA Sportsmanship Awards recognize players who embody the spirit of sportsmanship. The NBA makes a $25,000 donation on behalf of the NBA Sportsmanship Award honoree, and a $10,000 donation on behalf of each of the three divisional awardees, to the charitable organization of their choice.

OTHER PROGRAMS

The NBA also supports the efforts of Prevent Child Abuse America, honors the Martin Luther King Holiday, Black History Month, Gallaudet University, the Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund and the National Wheelchair Basketball Association.

Reading takes you to new heights.

Eddy Curry and Tyson Chandler take "time-out" to promote reading with Selena Hernandez at the General Robert E. Wood Boys & Girls Club.

Because we're not just the Bulls. We're the Chicago Bulls. And proud of it.

Standing Tall Together. Our team. Our neighbors. Our city.

When we stand together, it's a strong, unified front. For more than a decade, we have worked with government, education, religious and community leaders to reach our shared goals for better neighborhoods and a better Chicago.

In partnership with our neighbors, we are meeting challenges, overcoming obstacles and solving problems. The power of many working as one results in success. And we see that success every day; in classrooms, on playgrounds, on the streets and in homes.

We're building a brighter future. Together.

A SEASON OF PLAY, A LIFETIME OF CARING.

OUR COMMITMENT TO THE CITY WE CALL HOME.

Chicago is a great place for us to play. And we hope to help make it an even greater place for children to play: safer, brighter and friendlier. By partnering with community members, we work to touch the lives of our neighbors and their families in many ways. Since we are the grateful recipients of exceptional support, strength, and motivation from our devoted fans and the city of Chicago, it is both our responsibility and our pleasure to give back to our hometown.

Our commitment to Chicago is to create and contribute to programs that help make this a better place to learn, work and live. We are proud of the productive relationships we've formed with our neighbors and the success we have shared. Through financial support, in-kind services, numerous community programs, and the personal involvement of our players, coaches and the entire organization, we're reaching out to Chicagoans. Every day.

CHARITABULLS

HELPING OTHERS WIN. AT LIFE.

The game of life, after all, is the most important one of all. To that end, we've worked with the community to reach out to thousands of deserving Chicagoans. Since its inception in 1987, our nonprofit organization, CharitaBulls, has contributed tens of millions of dollars to the community. Created as a vehicle for the Bulls to help make Chicago a better place to live, this organization raises funds for a variety of ongoing, worthy causes. Our primary objective: to create positive educational and recreational opportunities for children and young people. And help them secure a winning advantage.

CHICAGO PARK DISTRICT PROGRAMS

In 1990, CharitaBulls donated $1 million over five years to repair and refurbish 140 damaged city basketball courts through the Chicago Park District/CharitaBulls Basketball Court Renovation Program. Since 1995, we have donated more than $700,000 to fund the Men's and Women's Chicago Bulls/ Chicago Park District Late-Nite Basketball Leagues. The leagues operate at Chicago Park District sites throughout the city and attract more than 1,000 players, ages 18-26. In conjunction with the Chicago Police Department, we also sponsor the Chicago Bulls/Chicago Park District Inner City Hoops Program, a similar basketball league for at-risk children, ages 9-12.

JAMES JORDAN BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB AND FAMILY LIFE CENTER

CharitaBulls donated $4.5 million in 1994 to build this 40,000-sq. ft., two-story, youth and family development center named in memory of James Jordan, Michael Jordan's father. Opened in 1996, the Club features a computer center, art studio, science lab, healthcare clinic, gym, daycare center, dance and game room, classrooms and more. The Club, located just two blocks from the United Center on Chicago's Near West Side, is a unit of the highly successful Boys & Girls Clubs of Chicago. It serves 1,500 neighborhood children and their families annually.

BULLS SCHOLARS

In November 1998, CharitaBulls announced a $3.5 million donation to the Chicago Public Schools to establish the Bulls Scholars Program in all 25 public middle schools. This is a competitive, after-school educational program designed to provide Chicago's seventh and eighth graders with the skills they need to succeed academically and personally. Each year, about 1,000 students receive added instruction in algebra and English from two middle school teachers and a certified high school teacher. This donation funds teaching personnel, instructional texts, materials and five computers per middle school. In addition to funding, and as an integral partner in this undertaking, we provide speakers, tickets and special events for the participating students. Through this initiative, we are addressing the critical issue of preparing middle school students for high school.

CHICAGO PUBLIC LIBRARY

In 1994, we pledged our support to the Chicago Public Library System by "adopting" the Mabel Manning Branch Library, located just two blocks from the United Center. CharitaBulls contributed $50,000 to furnish its "Computer Court," a tech center with computers, printers and software, for use by library patrons. In 1998, we pledged an additional $50,000 to upgrade the Computer Court's hardware and software and hire a part-time computer tutor. In addition to financial support, we participate in educational programs at the library.

CITY YEAR

In 1997, we formed a partnership with City Year Chicago, a national youth service organization. This group gathers young people, ages 17-21, from diverse backgrounds for a challenging year of full-time community service, leadership development and civic engagement. Since the beginning of this partnership, we have donated more than $200,000 to City Year's Young Heroes program, which invites 150 students from middle schools throughout Chicago to participate in 16 fun, lesson-filled Saturdays. The emphasis is on direct community service and formal leadership development training; students learn the value of teamwork, tolerance and commitment. In 1998, CharitaBulls pledged an additional $120,000, and in 2001 donated $25,000 to continue the Young Heroes program.

CHARITABULLS FUNDRAISING

Our foundation is primarily supported through contributions by the Chicago Bulls and funds raised at the following annual events and programs:

TIP-OFF LUNCHEON

Nearly 1,000 fans attend this preseason banquet each October to see our players and coaches and to get an insider's look at the upcoming year.

FESTABULLS

Every spring, fans are invited to join our players, coaches, announcers and staff for a very special dinner and sports memorabilia auction, held oncourt at the Berto Center. Throughout this exciting and intimate evening, fans have the opportunity to meet, mingle and dine with their favorite players and coaches. Nearly $100,000 is raised annually.

CONTENTS

8K RUN "RUNNING WITH THE BULLS"

During the summertime, runners from around the Chicagoland area can participate in the Annual Miller Genuine Draft "Running With the Bulls" 8K Run. The event is a fun-filled day of running, basketball and live musical entertainment. Following the Run, there is a post-run party for all participants and their families, which includes the Lipton Brisk Lemonade Kid's Fun Run with Benny the Bull and a celebrity basketball shootout featuring local media personalities. Current Bulls players join the festivities to sign autographs and take photographs with fans. Approximately $25,000 was raised from the Bulls 2002 8K Run in its inaugural year.

50/50 RAFFLE

Introduced during the 1996-97 season, the raffle has raised more than $750,000. Raffle tickets are sold at each home game. In the fourth quarter, a lucky winner takes home 50 percent of the net earnings from that evening's ticket sales. The other 50 percent benefits CharitaBulls.

MEMORABILIA AUCTIONS

Throughout the year, we host weekly online memorabilia auctions. Fans are allowed the chance to own a piece of our history by placing bids on a variety of items. The auctions are accessible at www.bulls.com. Additionally, in-game memorabilia auctions are held during the 41 regular-season home games. Nearly $35,000 is raised annually.

ADDITIONAL FUND SOURCES

We also raise funds through the CharitaBulls Corporate Sponsor program, whereby sponsors contribute money based on our number of victories, dunks, free throws, blocked shots, points, steals, rebounds and assists. Additional funds are generated through personal scoreboard messages ($100 donation) and in-game gift packages ($500), private donations, United Center tours and the sale of Michael Jordan statue maquettes.

SCHOOL PROGRAMS

SENDING A SMART MESSAGE: SCHOOL IS COOL.

It is our priority to create and fund programs to motivate and reward students –especially at-risk youth. We all benefit, as a city and as a nation, if our children are motivated to stay –and succeed –in school.

READ TO ACHIEVE

At the beginning of the 2001-02 season, we launched the NBA's "Read To Achieve" program, which unites all of the NBA's leading assets to impact one of the most pressing issues our society faces–literacy. This program promotes the value of reading and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. Every year, we distribute nearly 4,000 new books to Chicagoland children and host several "Reading Time-Outs" with our personalities. We also conduct book drives, create reading and learning centers and organize local spelling contests. We've also formed the Chicago Bulls All-Star Reading Team, featuring members from our family, (including current and former players, mothers and wives, along with Chicagoland officials) to assist with these reading initiatives throughout the year. In addition, book exchanges are conducted with fans and players before each home game.

ADOPT-A-SCHOOL

Positive reinforcement, recognition and role models are important tools to motivate students. With that in mind, we annually "adopt" a Chicago Public School. Through our Adopt-A-School program, we encourage students to set and achieve educational goals. Incentives such as tickets, guest speakers, autographed memorabilia, arena tours and souvenirs help encourage students to meet goals such as good attendance, grade improvement and positive attitude.

In addition to our in-kind support, we provide financial assistance. In 1999, we donated $17,000 to Brown Elementary School (located a block from the United Center) to partially fund a "Computer Court" at the school. In 2000, we donated an additional $2,000 to establish a Math and Science Lab. Also in 2000, we expanded this program to include other schools on the Near West Side such as Best Practice High School, Suder Elementary School, Spaulding School and Herbert Elementary School.

ART CONTEST

2002 Art Contest winner: Katie Zandi, Age 8, Talala Elementary School

To encourage creativity and interest in the arts, we annually host an art contest. Students in grades one through six in Lake, Cook, Will McHenry, Kane and DuPage counties are invited to draw or paint any scene depicting Bulls basketball, using either the our team logo or the words "Chicago Bulls." Winning entries appear in our team magazine, game program and yearbook.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Each season, we offer four $2,000 scholarships to area high school seniors who plan to attend college. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic achievement, extra-curricular activities and the contents of an essay. We also provide $20,000 in scholarships annually, through the United Center Joint Venture, to Malcolm X College students.

HOLIDAY EVENTS

OUR BEST SEASON EVER: THE HOLIDAY SEASON.

Giving back during the holiday season is especially rewarding. When we focus our heartfelt efforts on those who are in need, we can better understand the true spirit of the season. We're proud of our community work–but at no time are we prouder than during the holidays.

FOOD DRIVES

"Help the Bulls feed the hungry," echoes throughout the United Center each December as we partner with the Mayor's Office of Special Events and the Chicago

Anti-Hunger Federation to host our annual Holiday Food Drive. Nearly two tons of food are collected each holiday season and distributed to Chicago-area food kitchens and shelters. Since hunger is a year-round issue, we also host a "Non-Holiday" Food Drive each March with the Greater Chicago Food Depository.

HOLIDAY KIDS' PARTY

Only through the magic of the holidays could you see a seven-foot elf! Every December, we become Santa's helpers by inviting 200 underprivileged children to visit our team at our practice facility, the Berto Center, for a very special holiday celebration. Lunch and gifts are provided as well as the opportunity to meet and spend time with players and coaches. During the holiday season, our players also visit local hospitals and children's homes.

OTHER HOLIDAY PROGRAMS

In conjunction with the NBA, we host various holiday events at schools in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day and Black History Month. Along with school celebrations, we produce television and radio public service announcements (PSAs) commemorating these holidays. We also host an in-arena Child Abuse Awareness Night each April as part of Child Abuse Prevention Month.

BASKETBALL PROGRAMS

HOT HOOPS. COOL PLAYERS. WARM HEARTS.

We've found we can engage kids, provide strong role models, teach the value of hard work, positive attitude and good health–all by doing what we do best. Playing basketball.

CHARITY CORPORATE TICKET SECTION

Compliments of our corporate sponsors, we donate more than 200 tickets for each home game to local nonprofit groups so that underprivileged children and adults can experience the excitement of attending a game. In addition, the Return Ticket Program allows season ticket holders to return tickets that might otherwise go unused; these tickets are donated to schools and local charity organizations.

BULLS BASKETBALL SCHOOLS

CHICAGO BULLS BASKETBALL SCHOOLS

Our official instructional youth summer camps, the Chicago Bulls Basketball Schools,were introduced in the summer of 1999. Campers, ages 6-14, are taught skills and fundamentals for more than three hours every day for an entire week. Designed to be the finest youth basketball program in the country, the schools are coordinated through local park districts, offering convenient camp locations in more than 150 community locations throughout Chicago and its suburbs.

CHICAGO BULLS/WHITE SOX TRAINING ACADEMY

TRAINING ACADEMY

In 2001, we, along with the Chicago White Sox, established a state-of-the-art player development facility. The only one of its kind in the country, the Academy offers a full line of programs including private instruction, traveling teams, leagues and tournaments for boys and girls. Technologically advanced and featuring an outstanding staff, the Academy provides young players with the same equipment, coaching and training techniques previously available only to professional athletes.

CHICAGO BULLS 2BALL

"2ball" is an exciting youth basketball skills program which focuses on teamwork and the development of core basketball skills for boys and girls, ages nine and older. This skills competition, conducted with the Illinois Park and Recreation Association, is organized at a grassroots level, involving more than 90 local park districts throughout the state of Illinois. "2ball" is played on a half-court marked with specific shooting locations that award different points based upon difficulty. The one-minute competition requires two players, working together, to accumulate points by alternating shots from different locations. Each year approximately 9,000 youngsters participate.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

WINNING. . . THE HEARTS OF OUR NEIGHBORS.

It's one of our most important wins. To help support the dedicated Chicagoland community that cheers us on and boosts our morale, we get involved. And we make things happen, for all kinds of organizations and thousands of worthy Chicagoans. We're especially focused on the neighborhood that surrounds the United Center. Because that's our home, too. Through our ongoing partnerships with Near West Side political, religious, educational and community leaders, we have been able to play an integral role in the redevelopment of the neighborhood. As neighbors, we're proud to have accomplished a lot in a short time. And we are committed to continuing the momentum.

NEAR WEST SIDE COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Since the 1994 opening of the United Center, we have made a special effort to help renovate the Near West Side community. This neighborhood, once the site of Chicago's most devastating riots, is being revitalized. Just blocks from the United Center, CharitaBulls has built the James Jordan Boys & Girls Club and Family Life Center, donated a "Computer Court" to the Mabel Manning Library and "adopted" Brown Elementary School, Herbert Elementary School, Suder Elementary School, Spaulding School and Best Practice High School. Just northwest of the United Center, our wives' organization, Team Mates, helped fund a health clinic at Suder Elementary School that serves the community as well as the students. Directly south of the United Center is Malcolm X College where we, along with the United Center, have invested $1.6 million in educational and athletic programs. In December 1999, the United Center contributed $100,000 to help rebuild nearby St. Stephen Church, which was destroyed by fire in October 1999.

HOME VISITORS' PROGRAM

In 2000, we pledged $1 million to support this initiative which helps residents of Henry Horner Homes who are in transition. The program provides families with in-home support to maintain their homes, assistance in complying with lease requirements, links with other community resources, and help in achieving self-sufficiency through individual and family counseling, case management services, workshops and referrals.

UNITED CENTER COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND

One of our most ambitious undertakings, in partnership with the Chicago Blackhawks and the United Center, is the United Center Community Economic Development Fund, formulated in early 1995 to stimulate new business and create jobs. The three groups have coordinated efforts to create a $1 million fund for businesses that lack access to traditional capital resources, and will create jobs in the areas where they are needed most.

CHICAGO GATEWAY GREEN

In 2001, we formed an "Expressway Partnership" with Chicago Gateway Green, a nonprofit organization dedicated to the beautification of the Chicagoland area. We pledged $43,000 over three years. The goal of this partnership is to help transform expressways into parkways by removing litter and graffiti, to manage the landscape, and to install public art on area expressways. Our site is located on the outbound Kennedy Expressway at the Milwaukee Avenue exit ramp.

AUCTION/RAFFLE DONATIONS

Throughout the year, we contribute memorabilia to charity organizations, community fundraisers and school functions for use in auctions, as raffles/door prizes and as school incentive prizes. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been raised for local charities as a result. Since the 2000-01 season, more than $100,000 has been raised through in-kind donations of autographed memorabilia. However, this figure does not include the funds raised for schools and local charities through thousands of daily in-kind donations of tickets and merchandise.

TEAM MATES: CHICAGO BULLS WIVES' ORGANIZATION

Team Mates is a philanthropic organization of the wives and significant others of our front office employees, announcers, coaches and players. Every year, Team Mates hosts several fundraising events, including a Holiday ornament sale. Over the years, they have donated funds to Children's Memorial Hospital's Injury-Free Chicago Program, West Side Future, Chicagoland Radio Information Services, Inc. (CRIS), the Better Care for Youth Clinic at Suder Elementary School, Alzheimer's Association and several others. In addition to local efforts, the organization also supports the NBA's national initiative, NBA Wives Save Lives, to encourage breast cancer awareness. As part of this program, Team Mates work with the Susan Komen Breast Cancer Foundation to sponsor an awareness night during one home game each season.

CHICAGO WHEELCHAIR BULLS

We sponsor one of the nation's best wheelchair teams, the Chicago Wheelchair Bulls. The Wheelchair Bulls devote their time to helping others realize that wheelchair-restricted people can and do lead active, productive lives. They participate in numerous charity games, perform at our games and compete against other wheelchair teams on a national and international level. In 1997, the Wheelchair Bulls created a Junior Wheelchair Bulls team. In 2001, we provided $10,000 to fortify this program.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS (PSAs)

Our players have an extraordinary opportunity to reach out and make an impact on the community because of their great visibility as professional athletes. Throughout the year, our players, coaches and announcers help nonprofit organizations promote their causes and services by "starring" in public service announcements for both radio and television.

BOB LOVE

Former player Bob Love, currently our Director of Community Affairs, is a popular motivational speaker. He is available free-of-charge to deliver his inspirational message about overcoming a speech handicap, and about his life as a professional athlete to schools and social service agencies. Bob makes more than 300 appearances every year at schools, charity events, clinics, nonprofit groups and youth programs.

WISH-GRANTING FOUNDATIONS

There are few things as exciting or rewarding as seeing the sparkle in a child's eyes as he or she meets a personal hero. We work closely with the Make-A-Wish and Starlight Foundations, both national charity organizations that grant the wishes of chronically ill children. Each year, many of these children are brought to home games to have their wishes granted and to meet our players.

FAN SERVICES

OFF-THE-COURT PERFORMANCES THAT REALLY COUNT.

Our fans are outstanding. We welcome and appreciate their tremendous support, dedication and enthusiasm. In return, we invite them to get better acquainted with the team, staff, cheerleaders and mascots–live and in person.

APPEARANCES: PLAYERS, COACHES, BENNY THE BULL, DA BULL, LUVABULLS AND INCREDIBULLS

When schedules permit, our players, coaches and management staff make public appearances for charity benefits, hospitals, autograph sessions, speaking engagements and other events. Players visit various youth nonprofit organizations to conduct clinics, speak with kids and simply spend time with our young fans. Front office representatives also speak at career sessions and school programs.

Benny the Bull, Da Bull, the Luvabulls (and Junior LuvaBulls) and the IncrediBulls make hundreds of personal appearances each year. They are often seen around town, attending community parades, walk-a-thons, school assemblies, hospital visits, private parties, company events, golf outings, fundraising benefits and more.

TRAINING ACADEMY

PHILOSOPHY

As professional teams, we are in a unique position to help the aspiring athlete pull from these great games all that they have to offer. This Academy is the bridge between the Bulls and Sox, the athletes who want to push themselves to attain the very highest level of achievement.

We have created the most sophisticated youth player development facility in America. All we ask of you as you cross the threshold of our Academy is to pledge your best effort to us. In return, you will receive the very best that the Bulls and Sox have to offer.

At the Academy, you will be training in an environment that stresses the values of sportsmanship, integrity, and teamwork. "Because we love this game and kids who play it," is not only our motto, but our mandate to strictly maintain an environment that allows young athletes to grow into mature and productive well-rounded citizens.

The Academy is the only resource for total athlete training and counsel, offering youngsters the most progressive, knowledgeable and caring athletic assessment and personalized training capabilities available. The Academy was created in response to kids', parents' and coaches' overwhelming desire for professional instruction and advanced training equipment for young athletes.

TECHNOLOGY

Founded in 2001, the Training Academy is a 57,000 square foot facility with state-of-the-art technology. Three maple basketball courts, thirteen retractable hitting and pitching tunnels, 20,000 square feet of turfed infield and Sports Performance strength and conditioning capabilities. Young athletes can participate at the Academy through premiere teams, leagues, individual and group lessons, and membership packages.

DIGITAL MOTION ANALYSIS

This system captures and evaluates video frame by frame, with split screen capabilities demonstrating detailed comparisons. Instructors have the ability to burn CD-ROM's for each student, drawing lines and angles as references for later examination and comparison. This is the same program used by Bulls and White Sox coaches and professional scouts for evaluation, instruction, and the identification of potential draft choices.

PROBATTER

Also featured at the Academy is the lauded multi-media ProBatter pitching machine, the most realistic, game-like hitting device available to professional athletes. ProBatter features a life-sized player projection screen and the ability to throw any pitch, from curveballs to sliders, to any location with pinpoint accuracy and speed.

UNITED CENTER BUILDING INFORMATION

Completed in 1994, the United Center cost $175 million and is 960,000 square feet in size. 3,500 tons of steel were used in the building - enough to build 28 life-sized replicas of the Statue of Liberty. 41,000 cubic yards of concrete were used in the building - enough to equal a five-foot wide sidewalk from the United Center to the Berto Center in Deerfield, Illinois. The scoreboard is as tall as a two-story building (20 feet), weighs nearly as much as 26 cars, and displays 175,000 different lights. The first public event at the United Center was the World Wrestling Federation SummerSlam, held on August 29, 1994. The building has 1,850 doors, 6,500 parking spaces, eight escalators, nine elevators and 50 public restrooms. The United Center has hosted over 700 events and 11,000,000 guests in just over five years.
